Tenant must not alter, decorate, change or add to the premises.

9. Space “as is”: Tenant has inspected the premises. Tenant states that they are in good order and repair and takes the premises “as is.”

10. Care of Premises, grounds: Tenant shall keep the grounds neat and clean. Vehicles may be driven or parked in driveways, designated parking areas or in the garage.

11. Fire, damage: Tenant must give landlord immediate notice in case of fire or other damage to the premises. Landlord will have the right to repair the damage within a reasonable time or cancel this lease. If landlord repairs, tenant shall pay rent only to the date of the fire or damage and shall start to pay rent again when the premises become usable. Landlord may cancel the lease by giving tenant three (3) days written notice. The term shall be over at the end of the third day and all rent shall be paid to the date of the damage.

12. Liability: Landlord is not liable for loss, expense or damage to any person or property unless it is due to landlord’s negligence. Tenant must pay for damages suffered and money spent by landlord relating to any claim arising from any act of neglect of tenant. Tenant is responsible for all acts of tenant’s family, employees, guests and invitees.

13. Assignment, sublet: Tenant may not sublet all or part of the premises, or assign this lease or permit any other persons to use the premises.

14. Landlord’s consent: If tenant requires landlord’s consent to any act and such consent is not given, tenant’s only right is to ask the court to force landlord to give consent. Tenant agrees not to make any claim against landlord for money or subtract any sum from the rent because such consent was not given.

Tenant and landlord shall each have keys to all locks. Locks may not be changed, or additional locks installed without landlord’s consent. Doors must be locked at all times tenant is away from the premises. Landlord may place usual “for rent” or “for sale” signs upon the premises.

16. Subordination: This lease and tenant’s rights are subject and subordinate to all present and future (a) leases for the premises or the land on which it stands, (b) mortgages on the leases or on the premises or on the land, (c) agreements securing money paid or to be paid by the lender, under mortgages, and (d) terms, conditions, renewals, changes of any kind in and extensions of

17. Condemnation: If all of the premises are taken or condemned by a legal authority, the term and tenant's rights shall end as of the date the authority takes title to the premises. If any part of the premises is taken, landlord may cancel this lease on notice to tenant setting forth a cancellation date not less than thirty days from the date of the notice. If the lease is cancelled, tenant must deliver the premises to the landlord on the cancellation date together with all rent due to that date. The entire award for any taking belongs to landlord. Tenant gives landlord any interest tenant might have to any part of the award and shall make no claim for the value of the remaining part of the term.

B. If tenant fails to correct the default in section A within the fourteen days, landlord may cancel the lease by giving tenant a written fourteen day notice stating the date the term will end. On that date the term and tenant's rights in this lease automatically end and tenant must leave the premises and give landlord the keys. Tenant continues to be responsible for rent, expenses, damages and losses.

C. If the lease is cancelled, or rent or added rent is not paid on time, or tenant vacates the premises, landlord may, in addition to other remedies, take any of the following steps:

1. Enter the premises and remove tenant and any person and property.
2. Use dispossession, eviction or other lawsuit method to take back the premises.

D. If the lease is ended or landlord takes back the premises, rent and added rent for the unexpired term becomes due and payable. Landlord may re-rent the premises and anything in it for any term. Landlord may re-rent for a lower rent and give allowances to the new tenant. Tenant shall be responsible for landlord's cost of re-renting. Landlord's cost shall include the cost of repairs, decorations, broker's fees, attorneys fees, advertising and preparation for renting. Tenant shall continue to be responsible for rent, expenses, damages and losses. Any rent received from the re-renting shall be applied to the reduction of money tenant owes. Tenant waives all rights to return to the premises after possession is given to the landlord by a court.

20. Bankruptcy: If (1) tenant assigns property for the benefit of creditors, (2) tenant files a voluntary petition or an involuntary petition is filed against tenant under any bankruptcy or insolvency law, or (3) a trustee or receiver of tenant or tenant's property is appointed, landlord may give tenant thirty days notice of cancellation of the term of this lease. If any of the above is not fully dismissed within the thirty days, the term shall end as of the date stated in the notice. Tenant must continue to pay rent, damages, losses and expenses without offset.

21. Correcting tenant's default: If tenant fails to correct a default after notice from landlord, landlord may correct it for tenant at tenant's expense. The sum tenant must repay to landlord will be added rent.

23. Written instructions: Landlord has given or may give written instructions about the care and use of appliances, equipment and other personal property on the premises. Tenant must obey the instructions.

24. Illegality: If any part of this lease is not legal, the rest of the lease will be unaffected.

25. No waiver: Landlord's failure to enforce any terms of this lease shall not prevent landlord from enforcing such terms at a later time.

26. Quiet enjoyment: Landlord agrees that if tenant pays the rent and is not in default under this lease, tenant may peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the premises for the term of this lease.
